Product Labeling

Do all hearing aid-compatible handsets include labeling? Yes

Explain:

Do all hearing aid-compatible handsets that were tested under ANSI C63.19-2007, and that are capable of voice communication over any air interface or frequency band that does not have hearing aid compatibility technical standards under ANSI C63.19-2007, include the required language disclosing that the handset has not been rated for hearing aid compatibility with respect to such operation?

Yes

Explain:

Do all hearing aid-compatible handsets that were certified only under ANSI C63.19-2007, but that the manufacturer also tested and found not to meet hearing aid compatibility requirements under ANSI C63.19-2011 for one or more operations that are not covered under ANSI C63.19-2007, include language informing users by clear and effective means that the handset does not meet the relevant rating or ratings with respect to such operation(s)?

Yes

Explain:

Do all handsets that are capable of use for Voice over LTE, and that were certified for inductive coupling capability under ANSI C63.19-2011 without being tested for inductive coupling capability over VoLTE, include language disclosing that they were not tested with respect to this operation?

Yes

Explain:

Do all handsets that meet the criteria for an M3 rating by allowing the user to reduce the maximum power for GSM operation in the 1900 MHz band include the required disclosure?

Explain:

Public Website

Does your company maintain a public website describing all hearing aid-compatible models, the ratings of those models, and an explanation of the rating system? Service provider websites must include the levels of functionality that the service provider has defined, the level that each hearing aid-compatible model falls under, and an explanation of how the functionality of the handsets varies at the different levels.

No

Website address:

Explain: As of 10/1/2015, Peoples Wireless became an agent of Verizon Wireless and was no longer a service provider subject to the FCC's HAC reporting requirements. Peoples Wireless now refers customers to the Verizon Wireless HAC website for any HAC inquiries. Prior to 10/1/2015, Peoples Wireless maintained a public website describing all hearing aid compatible models, the ratings of those models and an explanation of the rating system.

Consumer Outreach

Describe consumer outreach efforts in the past 12 months: Peoples Wireless sales staff is trained to assist existing and prospective customers in identifying HAC compliant handsets and devices. Handset packaging inserts or operational manuals also provide information. Customers are also directed to www.accesswireless.org/Disability-Categories/Hearing.aspx and other websites dedicated to HAC education.

Methodology for Functionality Levels

Peoples Wireless offers HAC compliant handsets and devices in all major price categories, including low cost and features (generally less than $100); moderate cost and features (generally $100-$250); and high end/feature rich (generally greater than $250). At least one HAC compliant handset or device with features and services typical of its price category can be found that meets each customer's price range.

Report Remarks

As of 10/1/2015, Peoples Wireless became an agent of Verizon Wireless and was no longer a service provider subject to the FCC's HAC reporting requirements. Accordingly, this will be the last HAC Report filed by Peoples Wireless. For the sake of clarity, this Report only lists handsets offered from January 1, 2015 through September 30, 2015.
