Wireless Telecommunications Bureau (WTB) to Conduct Universal Licensing System (ULS) Interactive Demonstrations of Transfers and Assignments on December 14, 2000, in Washington, DC

The Federal Communications Commission's (FCC's) WTB will conduct an interactive demonstration of ULS on Thursday, December 14, 2000, at its Washington, DC headquarters. WTB seeks comments and suggestions from those individuals who are interested in attending this demonstration to coordinate and to design future events more effectively.

WTB will hold the demonstration at the FCC's headquarters in Washington, DC, in the ITC Training Room on the Twelfth Street level (main entrance level) of the Portals building at 445 12th Street, SW.

The topic of the December 14 demonstration will be

Morning session only: Transfers and Assignments, from 10 a.m. until noon

WTB has chosen this topic based on comments from previous demonstrations and will add, delete, or modify future demonstrations as participant interest dictates. WTB plans to hold ULS demonstrations on additional wireless services as these services are deployed.

Parties interested in attending the demonstration and/or providing comments should contact Jeff Smotherman at (202) 418-0584, or via email at jsmother@fcc.gov. Please specify your name and your firm or organization. Also provide a telephone number and email address where you can be contacted. You may also indicate what specific service(s) that interest you most. Seating is limited and will be assigned on a first-come, first-served basis.
